

First Aid Scenario

Judge shall read this statement to the team then start the clock when it is given to the team.

Joe was working on the lights from a 12' ladder located in the underground bucket shop. Joe fell from the ladder striking a LHD bucket and a welding cart.

Bill was walking by and heard the crash and went to investigate. Bill found Joe lying on the floor, face down and unconscious. His pants are soaked with blood.

Bill Called for help and your team responded.

Treat Joe.
