First aid competition; Scenario

Your team has been called to the Braxton Mine in Rolla, MO. Where it has been reported a miner has fallen off a loader and is wedged between the rib and a large section of rock. One of the miners on scene is trained in basic first aid but really has no idea what to do. A supervisor on site said they think the miner is breathing but he is not responding to any of their questions, they have shined flashlights in where the miner is and can see blood, but can't feel a pulse in his wrist that they can reach. The miner has been trapped for about 10 minutes. This site only employs 6 miners and only 2 are working in this area.
