

Problem

Team may have only two brattices in its possession at any given time

If the team needs to set timbers, they will be required to notify the mine foreman before doing so

A pump switch is located in the command center

The fan can not be stopped, stalled or reversed